American Indian Law Collection

Includes more than 1,700 titles and 1,000,000 pages relating to American Indian Law.

Since the American Revolution, American Indian law has evolved into a complex web of treaties, federal statutes and regulations, federal case law, tribal codes, constitutions, and jurisprudence. This collection contains an expansive selection of titles unique to American Indian law, including:

Serials:
- Interior Board of Indian Appeals (1972-current)
- Decisions of the Interior Board of Land Appeals (1970-current)

Notable Works:
- Indian Affairs Laws and Treaties, Charles J. Kappler, Vols. 1-7 (Laws: Compiled to Dec. 1, 1902-1971)
- American State Papers: Indian Affairs, Vols. 1-2 (1789-1827)

Legislative Histories:
- Indian Reorganization Act, P. L. 73-383, 48 Stat. 984, June 18, 1934

Other Major Volumes:
- CFR Title 25 - Indians (1938-current)
- U.S. Code Title 25 - Indians (1925 Edition-current)
- U.S. Statutes at Large, Vols. 7 & 8 (Treaties between the United States and the Indian Tribes)

We will continue to add more serials, legislative histories, and treatises to build this collection. We welcome any content suggestions.
Serials

- Interior Board of Indian Appeals (1970-current). The Interior Board of Indian Appeals is an appeals court review body that has the authority of the Secretary of the Interior to issue final decisions for the Department’s Office of Hearings and Appeals.

- Decisions of the Interior Board of Land Appeals (1970-current). The Interior Board of Land Appeals (IBLA) is an appellate review body that exercises the delegated authority of the Secretary of the Interior to issue final decisions for the Department of the Interior.

- Indian Claims Commission Decisions, United States, 44 v. Washington, D.C.: The Commission, 1948-1978. The commission was created under the Indian Claims Act on August 13, 1946, to hear claims of “any Indian tribe, band, or other identifiable group of American Indians” against the United States. This act helped to create grounds for recovery, especially for tribal lands that were taken from American Indians.

- Tribal Law Journal, Vols. 1-10 (2000-2012). The Tribal Law Journal provides native peoples, practitioners, and law students an opportunity to contribute their work to the discussion relating to internal indigenous law. The contributions will include, but are not limited to, tribal court case comments, reflections on tribal systems, the development of tribal law, the value of tribal law, interviews and teachings.

Legislative Histories:

- Indian Reorganization Act of 1934, an act signed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt in which U.S. Federal legislation secured certain rights to Native Americans.

- Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act of 1971, effected the largest claims settlement in the history of the United States. ANCSA was geared towards resolving long-standing issues surrounding land claims in Alaska, as well as stimulating economic development in Alaska.

- Indian Civil Rights Act: A Report of the United States Commission on Civil Rights

- Indian Law Enforcement Improvement Act of 1975, Hearings before the Subcommittee on Indian Affairs of the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, United States Senate, Ninety-Fourth Congress, First-[Second] Session, on S. 2010

- Tribal Law and Order Act of 2010: A Legislative History, passed with bipartisan support, this act amended the Indian Law Enforcement Reform Act and several other acts, extending and revising authority for prosecuting and responding to crimes in Indian country.

Constitutions, Acts & By-Laws:

Contains more than 300 works related to the Constitutions and Laws of American Indian Tribes, including:

- Constitution and Laws of the Cherokee Nation: Passed at Tahlequah, Cherokee nation, 1839-51. 1 v. Tahlequah, 1852
- Laws of the Cherokee nation, passed during the years 1839-1867, 1 v. St. Louis
- Act of Union between the Eastern and Western Cherokees, 1 v. Tah-le-quah, Cherokee Nation: National Press, 1870
- Laws and Joint Resolutions of the National Council (1870-1878), various titles available
- Constitution and Laws of the Choctaw Nation, 1 v. Park Hill, Cherokee Nation: J. Candy, Printer, 1840
Other Related Works:
This collection offers a number of notable works by pioneers in the history of American Indian law and other valuable titles of interest to researchers, including:

- Indian Affairs, Laws and Treaties, Vols. 1-7 (Laws: Compiled to Dec. 1, 1902-1971) by Charles J. Kappler. This publication was undertaken by Charles Kappler at the request of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on Indian Affairs. This definitive resource includes acts of Congress relating to treaties concluded between the United States and Native Americans from 1902-1971 and follows the format of Statutes at Large with notes in the margins.

- Landmark Indian Law Cases: National Indian Law Library; United States v. Buffalo, N.Y.: W.S. Hein, 2002. Contains 53 groundbreaking decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court in the field of federal Indian Law. The subject index of cases provides a quick reference aid, and all cases are listed under one or more relevant subject headings.

- Tribal Courts Directory, 1st-3rd Editions: Schwartz, April; Hunter, Mary Jo B., 2 v. Buffalo, N.Y.: William S. Hein & Co, 2006-2008. This publication brings together the many sources of information about Tribal Courts within the United States. In the third edition there have been some jurisdictional changes implemented, more courts established, web pages added and supplemented with Court information, and more libraries and public and private organizations linking web pages to more primary Court documents.

"Law dominates Indian life in a way not duplicated in other segments of American society"

This rare 46-volume set edited by Felix S. Cohen includes 389 treaties (including treaties with Indians and those with foreign nations referring to Indians), 2,654 public acts and resolutions, and 1,221 private acts, for a total of 4,264 statutory items.

Excerpt from the Preface from Statutory Compilation of the Indian Law Survey by Felix S. Cohen

The circumstances surrounding the Indian tribes are so different from what they were when the laws now in force for the regulation of trade and intercourse with them were enacted, that they may be regarded as entirely inapplicable. Legislation adapted to the present condition of things is demanded. And authority should be obtained from Congress for compiling the laws now extant, referring directly, indirectly or remotely to our Indian affairs. The necessity for such compilation must, it seems to me, be apparent.

Other Notable Works by Felix S. Cohen in This Library:

- Handbook of Federal Indian Law (Temporary Edition), 13 v. Washington: U.S. Department of the Interior, 1940. This work supplements the historical approach with an analysis of the actual functioning of legal rules and concepts and the actual consequences of statutes and decisions. It also contains an annotated Table of Statutes and Treaties and a Table of Federal Cases.
