BUFFALO, NY, June 15, 2012 – HeinOnline, a product of William S. Hein & Co., Inc., recently released a new HeinOnline a-la-carte library: Congress and the Courts

Congress and the Courts, featuring William H. Manz's Congress and the Courts: A Legislative History 1787-2010, brings together materials reflecting congressional concern with the composition and structure of Article III Courts and provides all relevant documents prepared by various Congresses relating to the purpose, formation, organization, and restructuring of the federal government.

This new library focuses on development and growth of the federal courts and the judiciary as a source of original material of congressional fact finding and decision making. Decades of legislative intent, testimony, and pre-enactment history is provided in one centralized library.

Congress and the Courts features:

- Congress & the Courts: A Legislative History 1787-2010 Compiled by William H. Manz
- Federal Judicial Center Publications
- Other Related Works, including Administrative Conference of the United States: Recommendations and Reports - Vols. 1-4, 1978-1995 (1968-1995)
- Periodicals, including Federal Probation - Vols. 1-75 (1937-2011)
- Links to Scholarly Articles
- CFR Title 28 - Judicial Administration
