Air and Space Law

Whenever authorities in the air and space law community have something to say, they are likely to say it in Air and Space Law, the preeminent journal of viral debate and information in this immensely important field. Crossing all international and cultural lines - and presenting government, commercial, and theoretical perspectives, Air and Space Law provides lawyers, policymakers and businesspeople in the aviation and aerospace fields with penetrating articles that discuss and clarify crucial issues, such as aircraft accident investigation and liability legislation, state aid, security, credit and leasing interest involved in aircraft, among others.

ASA Bulletin

The ASA Bulletin is the official quarterly journal of the prestigious Swiss Arbitration Association. Since its inception in 1983, the Bulletin has carved a unique niche with its focus on arbitration case law and practice worldwide as well as for its judicious selection of scholarly and practical writing in the field.

Asian Dispute Review

Asian Dispute Review is a quarterly journal, sponsored by Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (East Asia Branch), the Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators and the Hong Kong Mediation Council. Each edition of the journal generally comprises 8 papers, a news section and a book review, all with a focus on arbitration, mediation and other forms of ADR. The content is written in a style easily understood by lay readers, with substantive law content limited unless it aids the understanding of the arbitration/ADR content.

Asian International Arbitration Journal

The Asian International Arbitration Journal is the first journal to provide high-level commentary applicable to arbitration throughout Asia. Published in collaboration with the Singapore International Arbitration Centre this journal will become the thought leader in issues in international commercial arbitration in the Asia-Pacific Region.

Business Law Review

Business Law Review offers readers analytical articles on topics of current importance, written by experts in the field, as well as updates and reviews on specific areas of business law, including: commercial property, consumer credit, criminal law, employment, health and safety, intellectual property and more!
