

Congress & the Courts

Covering the Creation, Structure, and Organization of Federal Courts and Judiciary

Congress and the Courts brings together materials reflecting congressional concern with the composition and structure of Article III Courts and provides all relevant documents prepared by various congresses relating to the purpose, formation, organization, and restructuring of the judiciary.

This database focuses on the development and growth of the federal courts and judiciary and is a source of original material of congressional fact finding and decision making. Decades of legislative intent, testimony, and pre-enactment history is provided in one centralized resource.
